Contemporary PNG Studies: DWU Research Journal

Volume 38, November 2022

The Contemporary PNG Studies: DWU Research Journal is published twice a year in May and November. The journal provides the means for DWU staff, students and associated academics to publish research findings, personal perspectives, reports of projects or developments and reviews of recent books on Papua New Guinea. The journal promotes investigations of practice and theory in fields covered by faculties and activities of Divine Word University at all its campuses.

Full-text articles from volumes of the Contemporary PNG Studies: DWU Research Journal can be accessed at <http://www.dwu.ac.pg>. Using the pull-down menus, go from Research on the homepage to Research Journal. There you can locate the articles.

Information for contributors

Articles should be 3000-6000 words in length. The word count includes the abstract and references. A 50-75 word biographical note about the author should accompany the article. Reviews of recent books on Papua New Guinea should be 900-1500 words in length. The journal uses APA referencing style and prefers no footnotes. Electronic contributions using PC software can be sent by email attachment to cmatbob@dwu.ac.pg. Manuscripts will be acknowledged on receipt.

Acknowledgement

Significant assistance received from DWU staff members in proof reading, editing, and typesetting of the articles in this volume supported by Ms. Coelina Matbob is hereby gratefully acknowledged.
